To-Day's Races

Big Fields: Keen Sport

BY "LAST QUARTER"

A programme consisting entirely of handicap events will be presented to the public at the Hong Kong Jockey Club Ninth Extra Race Meeting this afternoon. The tit bit of the day will undoubtedly be the Kwangtung Handicap, the last race on the card, for "D" Class China Ponies, which has attracted 19 entries. The special $1 sweep will be drawn for on this race and the field will in all probability be the largest of the meeting. The sale of tickets to date exceeds 59,000 and there is every possibility of over 62,000 tickets being sold, which would bring the first prize to approximately $27,000.00.

Against CommunistsGeneralissimo Directs Operations

Nanking, Oct. 23.
Ever since the foundation and organizing of the Punitive Expedition for the suppression of communist bandits in the Northwest, Marshal Chiang Kai-shek has not been able to give this important matter his personal attention.

It is reported that at noon yesterday, Marshal Chiang Kai-shek, General Chin Ta-kwen and a staff of over twenty officials flew to Sian, the capital of Shensi Province, in separate aeroplanes to take command and direct the movements of the punitive army.

On reaching Sian, they were welcomed by General Chang Hsiang, acting commander of the punitive army, Civil Governor Yew Sik-tze, Pacification Commissioner Yang Foo-shing and many other civil and military officials of the Province.

Lull Before Storm?Delicate
Sino-Japanese
Position

Shanghai, Oct. 23.
The dispersal of the Hankow Conference came about with the departure of Mr. Y. Suma, Japanese Consul-General at Nanking, for Tokyo, which brought a lull to the Sino-Japanese political front. Many observers are wondering whether this is a lull before the storm.

Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek arrived by air from Sian, Shensi, where his own troops under Marshal Chang Hsiang-ling are at present engaged in anti-Communist operations at Hanfuchu, with resounding pledges in favour of Nanking on his lips. The Generalissimo is returning to Tsinan partly by train tonight, while General Hsu Yung-chang is going to Shansi to resume his post as Commander of the Red Suppression Forces there.

Mr. Suma is expected back next week with fresh instructions for Mr. Kawagoe.

Sino-political circles say that the only hope of peaceful solution rests upon Japan "climbing down" on certain proposals, notably those regarding North China and anti-Communist pact but are most reluctant in confirming possible alternatives.

The building includes two inner tennis courts and a spacious assembly hall. The hospital and laboratory will be on the top floor. Messrs. RARE COIN TO BE SOLD

"Angel" Minted For Boy King

England's rarest "angel," a coin of Edward V., the boy who reigned for three months, was auctioned at Glendinning's, London, states the London "Bulletin."

Within three weeks of his accession, the Mint rushed a coinage of angels and groats, their distinguishing marks being a bear's head and a rose and sun.

The "angel" was first made by Henry VI., and had the figure of Archangel Michael. A coin of half the value was called the angellet.

Two months after the issue of the "angels" Edward V. was smothered in the Tower. The wicked uncle, Richard III., also rushed his coinage, and within a few days had a stamp with the letters "Rich" stamped over "Edw" and using the last letters "ard."

THE "FLIGHTY" SEX

Mrs Markham Honoured

Mrs. Beryl Markham, first woman to fly the Atlantic east to west solo, made a speech lasting 30 seconds at a luncheon given in her honour in London recently. She thanked her hosts, and then said—"I would rather fly the Atlantic any day than make a speech," according to the London "Bulletin."

Mr. F. J. Wolfe, chairman of the Anglo-American Oil Company, Ltd., said—"Her triumph has probably done more to establish the equality of the sexes—or ought I to say the superiority of her sex?—than any achievement of recent years."

"We have to acknowledge that we live in a woman's age. Women figure in our great motor races. They qualify as barristers, engineers, doctors—and now Beryl Markham gives the mighty sex an entirely new meaning."

CHRISTIANITY'S CLARION CALL

Desperate Heroism Demanded

THE FALLACY OF GRADUALISM

BY
"Scrutator"

The fallacy of Christianity to-day is a belief in gradualism. It is represented in every professing Christian who disclaims a revolutionary responsibility to society, and argues that God's Kingdom can only be achieved by peaceful penetration of social life.

Gradualism is madder than the woman who married the confirmed drunkard with the express purpose of reforming him, because it accepts an evil system of life in the hope that by Christian moral living, it will up-lift the system to a truly spiritual and Christian level. It is mad, because no true Christian can love an evil thing, and even the firmest believers in gradualism unite to denounce the viciousness of our present economic and social life. But Christ's religion is one of love; the world is saved by love; and so the gradualist fails!

The Christian revolutionary, the true Christian, refuses to accept as binding upon his life the economic system under which the world lives; he repudiates the whole thing, because he hates it, because it is a blank denial of Christ, and Christian love. Unfortunately that refusal, that repudiation is not yet completely articulate, or the world would have found itself in the throes of the greatest upheaval that history has ever experienced. But that upheaval is coming, and unless it is initiated and led by the friends of Christ, it will be born into the world by an unholy discontent which will grow into an even greater menace to mankind's highest welfare than that which at present threatens and stifles us under the existing economic and social system.

WHAT HISTORY TEACHES

If history teaches anything, it certainly ratifies the statement that peaceful penetration, progress by the conversion of the individual, can only be carried out when the society to be converted is not antagonistic to the programme presented, when it is not organised to prevent it. But secular life, and religion as organised and socially accepted, has always been pitched against the truth of Jesus Christ, otherwise, the founder of Christianity would never have been arrested and executed on the charges of treason, blasphemy, and disturbing the peace; otherwise, the story of the early Church would never have been one soaked in the blood of the martyrs. Christ was crucified; and his followers have suffered and died, not because they believed that God is Love, but because they argued and taught that love and not self-interest was the truth of life, and that the men and women who were led by selfishness were destined to eternal nothingness. Indeed were already nobodies. It isn't pleasant to be regarded as nobody especially when you believe very earnestly that you are somebody!

HEROISM BUFFETED

Follow history and you will see that every fresh effort to establish the truth of Christ has been crushed by the world, or has had its stinging challenge removed by the powers that be. From being a spiritual, free, revolutionary movement, Christianity became within the first century thoroughly institutionalised, the state religion of the Roman Empire. This, after the execution of Jesus, is the greatest tragedy which befell the Christian way. The Nicene Creed, for example, is a poor spineless thing compared to the Sermon on the Mount, and Church membership is meaningless as a substitute for spiritual and intellectual loyalty to Christ. The history of Christianity is the history of a heroism constantly buffeted and broken by the evil in men, but the history of the Church is just the story of an institution striving against its own inherent weaknesses to preserve itself, and the reason for that is, that the Church very early adopted a belief in gradualism, relinquishing the heroism of the Christian way, the way of Paul and Peter, forsaking the sufferings of Christ and burying the hard steel gauntlet of His commanding challenge in a soft verbosity of uncertain dogma and an unending dillying with meaningless speculation. The Church is alive to-day because from time to time there arose within her men and women who, loving Christ and his truth, disdained the Church's authority and threw her erstwhile terror of excommunication back in her face. Gradualism to a living Christianity is more hateful than sin; it betrays both Christ and the sinner.

WHY WAIT?

And why should we wait? Why should we leave time to work its havoc upon an already weakening and decaying formulation of Christianity?

Every age has brought forward its social system and called it Christian; the Roman system based upon slavery, the Feudal system based upon human tyranny, the capitalist system founded upon false conceptions of the nature and functions of wealth; have we learned nothing from these historical formulations of life? Is our much boasted scientific age too utterly impotent by reason of its pride and materialist tendencies, to produce a more reasonable and equitable way of life for every man?

Gradualism will lead mankind nowhere, but deeper and deeper back into the pit from which he has so slowly emerged! Have we learned nothing at all from the experience of the past, that we must just sit still and wait until our world crashes in ruin about our heads because we were afraid to tackle the ordering of society in as thorough and scientific a fashion as our medical men have tackled the diseases of our physical bodies?

We are like flies which, one after the other become impotent and dead by dashing themselves upon a sticky fly-catcher! Shall we go on doing that until the fly-catcher becomes so overloaded that it cannot hold any more of us but breaks down itself? Is the gradual decay of a system which makes a true full human life impossible for millions of our fellow mortals all we can hope for from this twentieth century? Is there no other way of facing up to our position, of challenging our fate? Or is Christianity utterly and completely dead?

SLOW POISON

Christianity has a Gospel or it hasn't! The way of Christ is real or it is nothing! Are two thousand years of experience to be regarded as valueless in the re-organising of life to-day? If we cannot learn the lessons of experience, if we fail to act intelligently as Christians, then we shall continue to be flies, being broken endlessly upon the system until the system itself breaks! There is no desire to appear hectic in these words, but there is infinite need to be disturbing. The philosophy of gradualism is a slow poison, slow but deadly, and so cunning that its exponents do not recognise how terribly fatal it is; it permits of a Christian profession, yes, even a loud one, indeed the louder the better, but it spells the doom of Christianity in our era because it makes the profession of Christ's way temporarily compatible with a system, which in its results is the eternal opposite of all that Christ suffered and died to prevent.

BLINDINGLY CLEAR

If our age is to be spared the damning charge of insincerity and betrayal, we must cease believing in the possibility of a gradual salvation of mankind and be prepared to take Jesus seriously, as a man who said and did disturbing things, and died a lonely and terrible death rather than recant one iota of them. The simple fact that Jesus was crucified takes a great deal of swallowing, once you have thought about it seriously, for he was crucified simply for being Jesus—for being the will of God! And that is what being a Christian means, being in oneself "the will of God"—perpetuating the type of Jesus, creating in the world such numbers of such people, such an unshakable Christian power, that the world will be forced to bow to and accept the will of God for mankind. It is blindingly clear that unless we do perpetuate Jesus we will sink into some form of brutal existence.

THE WORLD CAN BE SAVED

Perpetuation of Jesus, means that society will have to reckon with a religion which has certain very definite social consequences, and a very real power to translate those consequences into facts.

It is not yet too late to save our world.

The inhuman machine of the modern economic world-order, is inhuman only because Christianity has been too effete and respectable, too unreal, too unlike the way of Christ, to prevent it; but a Christianity which was dead yesterday can come alive today, because it contains within itself the dynamic necessary for its rebirth. But that rebirth is costly, in immediate comfort and intellectual peace; it costs life to create life; the price of losing life to save it; of thrusting itself, in this instance, by one desperate heroic act, out of the system in which it is completely, and at present, inextricably, involved.

The principle of love is here implied which takes its origin in what is greater than man, in the power of God, and if there is a real intention to receive this new life, to enter the experience of being born again, to perpetuate the type of Jesus, no matter what sins and crimes may have been committed by men and nations in past years, the world can be saved!

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE LESSON SERMON

First Church of Christ, Scientist, Hong Kong.

Subject: "Probation after Death." The subject of the Lesson Sermon in all Christian Science Churches to-morrow, October 25, will be "Probation after Death."

The Golden Text will be "The righteous also shall hold on his way, and he that hath clean hands shall be stronger and stronger." (Job 17: 9).

Amongst others, the following citations from the Bible will be read. "But unto everyone of us is given grace according to the measure of the gift of Christ. Wherefore he saith, when he ascended up on high, he led captivity captive, and gave gifts unto men. Be ye therefore followers of God as dear children; And walk in love, as Christ also hath loved us, and hath given himself for us an offering and a sacrifice to God for a sweet-smelling savour. And have no fellowship with the unfruitful works of darkness, but rather reprove them. But all things that are re-proved are made manifest by the light; for whatsoever doth make manifest is light. Wherefore he saith, Awake thou that sleepest, and arise from the dead, and Christ shall give thee light. See then that ye walk circumspectly, not as fools, but as wise, Redeeming the time, because the days are evil. Wherefore be ye not unwise, but understanding what the will of the Lord is." (Ephesians 4: 7, 8, 5: 1, 2, 11, 13-17).

The Lesson Sermon will also include the following passages from the Christian Science Textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy. "We cannot spend our days here in ignorance of the Science of Life, and expect to find beyond the grave a reward for this ignorance. Death will not make us harmonious and immortal as a recompense for ignorance. If here we give no heed to Christian Science, which is spiritual and eternal, we shall not be ready for spiritual life hereafter. Life is deathless. Life is the origin and ultimate of man, never attainable through death, but gained by walking in the pathway of Truth both before and after that which is called death. A demonstration of the facts of Soul in Jesus' way resolves the dark visions of material sense into harmony and immortality. To divest thought of false trusts and material evidences in order that the spiritual facts of being may appear,—this is the great attainment by means of which we shall sweep away the false and give place to the true. We must hold forever the consciousness of existence, and sooner or later, through Christ and Christian Science, we must master sin and death." (Pages 409, 487, 428).

Admiral Is Proud He Never Served In The Admiralty

Admiral Sir Frederick William Fisher, "Jacky" Fisher's brother, is 85.

He is still capable of displaying the peppery spirit popularly attributed to admirals—as I discovered, when I asked him if he ever served in the Admiralty.
states a correspondent of the "Evening Standard."

"Serve in the Admiralty?" he demanded. "Not if I don't suppose I have been in the Admiralty more than half a dozen times in my life."

He is proud of the fact that his life has been spent at sea.
At the age of ten he sailed in a merchant ship "and good training for the Navy it was."

He joined the Navy in 1855.
He served all over the world. He missed the bombardment of Alexandria, when "Jacky" Fisher first saw active service, because at the time he was on the South American coast.

By 1891 he had risen to captain's rank, and the list of the ships he commanded brings back vivid memories of the great days of the old Navy—Temeraire, St.
Vincent, Blenheim, Canopus, Col-ingwood, Revenge.

DANCING PIRATE

"Dancing Pirate," the rollicking romantic comedy now at the Queen's and Alhambra Theatres, again places Pioneer Pictures to the forefront in the production of the full colour Technicolor films. The triumph of the company's two reel "La Cucaracha" is well remembered.

As the first production of its kind—a feature-length picture stressing laughter, humour, music and dancing in full-colour—"Dancing Pirate" has gained critical acclaim for its artistic atmosphere and its refreshing story. The picture features a hilarious series of embarrassing situations encountered by Frank Morgan as the Alcalde of a Spanish pueblo and by Charles Collins in the title role adventuring in a romance with Steffi Duna. Collins, regarded as the screen find of the season, is fresh from many great triumphs on the stage of New York and London. Morgan's portrayal is said to rival his "Duke" in "The Affairs of Cellini."

25 CHICKENS FLOWN 2,400 MILES

A batch of 25 newly-hatched chickens have been flown 2,400 miles in three days to Sydney. They arrived in good condition, although they received no attention after leaving Perth, Western Australia.

The chickens were consigned to Sydney by a Western Australian poultry breeder.

They were placed in a well-ventilated cardboard box, and the pilots of the planes in which they travelled were asked to keep the box out of draughts and not obstruct the ventilation.

QUEENIE TO PLAY IN KOWLOON

Popular Troupe For Majestic Theatre

Kowloon residents—those who have not already seen the inimitable Queenie and her troupe of talented artists—will have an opportunity of so doing when she, and the Kall's Hawaiian Troubadours, will occupy the stage at the Majestic Theatre on Monday, concurrently with the screening of "Fury," featuring Sylvia Sydney and Spencer Tracy.

In addition to Queenie and her Troubadours, there will be Nina and Jose, two superb Mexican dancers.

As is it generally known, Queenie and her versatile troupe have had a long engagement at one of the most popular rendezvous in the Colony, and have always played to packed houses.

The management of the Majestic Theatre are to be congratulated on their foresight in bringing these popular entertainers to the other side of the harbour.

FANG AND CLAW

In "Fang and Claw," which Buck made for the Van Beuren Corporation and RKO Radio release, now showing at the "Majestic," the animal collector lets the public in on many of the secrets of his profession. He might even be induced to lend his paraphernalia to those ambitious to follow his footsteps; but then the trouble would start, for there is little chance to think twice when one is facing a man-eating tiger or a charging rhinoceros.

Highlighting "Fang and Claw" are barehanded engagements with a python and a crocodile, ending in the capture of both; the taking of a herd of antelope through a novel runaway and snare; the capture of a baby rhinoceros just after it had been attacked by a tiger, and the spectacular native played by Buck in saving a native from a great jungle feline.

"WOMEN ARE TROUBLE"

Paul Kelly, virile actor of hard-boiled roles, is unique in Hollywood as the only mature male actor to have successfully bridged the gap from child stardom. Kelly appears currently in "Women Are Trouble" at the King's Theatre.

Kelly was born in Brooklyn, across the street from the old Vitaphone studio, and at five he made his debut as a child actor. Before long he became famous as the "Vitaphone Boy," and he had the honour of appearing in the first two-reeler ever made, "Billie's Burglar" with George Cooper.

Until 1933 Kelly alternated between stage and screen, registering in such hits as "Lili," "The Pure Heart" and "The Great Magoo" on Broadway; and "Star of Midnight," "Public Hero No. 1" and "The President Vanishes" in Hollywood.

LONDON ROBBERY

Lady Moore-Guggisberg—founder of the Woman's Emergency Corps in 1914, and formerly Miss Declma Moore, the actress—has been robbed of all her War decorations and "souvenirs," recently, including her C.B.E., hundreds of letters of sentimental value, and about £300 worth of clothing.

Among the property stolen were a signed photograph and letter from the King, when Prince of Wales, and a letter from Earl Haig.

She left her car outside the Ladies' Army and Navy Club while she went in for some letters, and on her return it had gone. It was

SCARED BY GOSSIP

Girl Minister Attracts Large Congregation

Gossip about her youth and frankness scared Scotland's "Little Minister"—twenty-one-year-old Miss Helen MacRobert—who, as newly-appointed assistant minister and church hostess at Orsquare Church of Scotland, Paisley, preached her first sermon recently. It lasted seven minutes. A packed church listened to her.

But at the service there were no handshakes at the door.

The girl minister walked from the vestry to the pulpit two minutes after the service began, and those who had waited with reassuring messages of good luck were disappointed.

The Rev. Benjamin Sibbald, regular minister of the church, explained to the congregation that Miss MacRobert had been upset by the critical comments of Paisley people.

ENORMOUS INTEREST

"We deplore to a certain extent the publicity drawn to Miss Helen G. MacRobert on her appointment as assistant minister at this church," he said.

"Her application for the position was considered as though it was the application of a normal male student."

"Let Miss MacRobert's work speak for itself."

Miss MacRobert has herself declared that one of the most surprising results of her appointment has been the enormous amount of interest aroused.

Many members of the congregation saw their new assistant minister for the first time when she walked to the pulpit, a small delicate-looking girl, with thick dark hair.

Miss MacRobert said after the service: "There has been a lot of comment. Local newspapers have been a little too keen about my age and my views. It has made me a little nervous."

"I should appreciate it very much if the 'thief' would return those articles which are of sentimental value to me only," said Lady Moore-Guggisberg.

"Some time ago I was always feeling tired. I grew very weak and got no pleasure out of life. Then a friend advised me to take Sanatogen and — look at me now! I am fit and vigorous again and feel thoroughly happy."

That world-famous Medical Paper, "The Lancet," writes about the strengthening influence of Sanatogen:

"There is abundant evidence of the value of Sanatogen as a restorative and food, and more particularly in cases of general debility."

When you do not feel so well, start taking Sanatogen. Every chemist sells it and Sanatogen will soon make you thoroughly strong and healthy again, full of youthful vitality.

TRAFFIC SUMMONSES

European Heavily
Fined For Speeding

Traffic summonses were dealt with by Mr. W. Schofield at the Central Magistracy yesterday morning when he fined Mr. R. G. Noblet the sum of $50 for driving his car, No. 4497 between Wanchai Street and Arsenal Road at a speed exceeding 35 miles an hour.

Traffic Sergeant Kelly told the Court that the area concerned was a dangerous one and many accidents had occurred in it.

For leaving his motorcar, No. 3827 unattended on Wong Nei Chung Road on October 10, which was a Race Day, Cdr. C. D. Arbuthnot was ordered to pay a fine of $5. Defendant was not in Court but had written a letter in explanation.

ANOTHER CASE

For driving her motorcar at a speed exceeding 35 miles an hour in a controlled area at 10.05 a.m. on October 15, Mrs. H. P. T. Swinburne, licence-holder No. 109, was fined $10 by Mr. W. Schofield at the Central Magistracy yesterday morning.

Traffic Sergeant Kelly appeared for the Police.

NO PERMIT FOR GARAGE

Kowloon Resident Fined

F. Giffening, 11 Lock Road, was summoned before Mr. Q. A. A. Macfadyen at the Kowloon Magistracy yesterday for unlawfully using the premises of No. 447 Nathan Road as a garage without a permit from the Inspector General of the Police.

Traffic Sgt. Scrim, who prosecuted stated that he was notified by the Fire Brigade regarding the matter. The premises however, were properly accommodated for a garage, and accused was now supplied with a permit. A fine of $8 was imposed.

DEFECTIVE BRAKES

W. H. Brown, of No. 227 Prince Edward Road, owner of car No. 2301, appeared before Mr. Q. A. A. Macfadyen at the Kowloon Court yesterday, on a summons for not having his hand brake in good condition on October 4, about 11.15 a.m. in Nathan Road.

Traffic Sgt. Scrim stated that the car was tested and the foot brake was found to be in excellent condition but the hand brake was not.

Mr. Brown said that he had the brake tested about two weeks ago and was unaware that the hand brake was not in working condition.

A fine of $3 was imposed upon him.

Macfadyen at the Kowloon Magistracy yesterday charged with detaining a boy named Ho Yun-hoi, two years, with intent to deprive the mother Leung Ho, of the possession of the child at Shamshuipo on Oct. 22, and for taking part in a transaction, the object of which was to transfer the possession of the child for a valuable consideration, at No. 177, Cheung Sha Wan Road, ground floor on the same day.

POSTAL THEFTS

Letters Stolen By
Impudent Trick

"VERY SERIOUS OFFENCE"

"I consider it a very serious offence," Mr. W. Schofield told the prosecution when Li Wah, a Chinese male, appeared before him at the Central Magistracy yesterday on a charge of stealing letters from various addresses on October 21.

It was revealed that the defendant had employed the assistance of two juveniles, aged 6 and 11 years respectively, in the theft. With another friend he had gone to various addresses and with bamboo sticks, the ends of which were split, extracted letters from postal boxes.

On the day in question, District Watchman 134 became suspicious of the defendant's actions and he followed the man to various addresses where he saw him hand a number of letters to Mak Chuen, 11-year-old boy. These were taken from the boy by his partner who put the letters into the pocket of a 6-year old girl. This child was related to the accused.

Both the defendant and his accomplice were ordered to be remanded till 11.30 this morning.

EX-CONSTABLE'S
LAPSE

Li Fai, 32, coolie, appeared before Mr. K. Keen at the Central Magistracy yesterday morning, charged with impersonating himself as a police officer on October 22, and with theft of coins from a Chinese male.

Sergeant J. Bentley, appearing for the Hong Kong Police, told the Court that at 6 a.m. on the day in question, defendant went up to the complainant, Chan Chik-fan, and told him that he was a police officer. He submitted the complainant to a search and while thus engaged he took sixty cents from the latter. Chan Chik-fan followed the accused, as a result of which defendant was arrested and handed over to the Police.

The defendant was a former constable in the force, the Court was informed, being dismissed from the service about five years ago.

Sentences totalling six months' hard labour was imposed on the prisoner.

ROUND-UP OF BEGGARS

Twenty-five Appear
In Court

As a result of a round-up of beggars carried out by the local Police on October 22, in order to abate the nuisance created on Gienally Road near the Dairy Farm, 25 defendants appeared before Mr. K. Keen at the Central Magistracy yesterday morning. Sgt. Dewar prosecuted for the Police.

It was revealed that the beggars had been attracted to the locality by some unknown philanthropist who daily dispensed coins to them. Action was taken by the Police after several complaints had been received from residents of the locality, Sergeant Bentley explained.

A 24-hour remand was granted by the Court.

YOUTH IN TROUBLE

For being in possession of 250b pills of heroin, Kwok Yin, 15-year-old youth, was ordered to stand committal at the next Criminal Session by Mr. K. Keen at the Central Magistracy yesterday morning.

The defendant was arrested by Chinese Detective, Lu Pao Sen at Hollywood Road, near Tung Street, on October 22.

Sergeant Sullivan prosecuted on behalf of the Police.

TRAFFIC INQUEST

Criticised By Jurymen

MISADVENTURE
VERDICT

"The contributory cause of the accident appears to be the bad lighting of Nathan Road. With the present day traffic, any system of street lighting which gives alternative and approximately equal distances in light and shade, is not only inadequate but dangerous."

This was the verdict returned at the resumed inquest yesterday at the Kowloon Magistracy into the circumstances attending the death of an unknown Chinese girl, aged about 10 years who was knocked down by a car and killed on the evening of September 25, at Nathan Road near Soy Street.

Mr. Q. A. A. Macfadyen, sitting as Coroner accordingly returned a verdict of "death by misadventure."

Dr. G. H. Henry stated that he examined the body of deceased the day following the accident.

He found a large wound in the shape of a triangle, 5in. by 4in. in the left side of the chest, where the handle of the car caught the girl. This he pointed out was the cause of her death.

The second, third and fourth ribs were ruptured, and the left lung and right side of the heart were also ruptured. There were minor bruises on her face and knees due to falling on the ground.

"There was a fair amount of violence used," said Dr. Henry in answer to the Coroner, "otherwise the heart and lung would not have been ruptured."

Mr. Jerome E. Law, of No. 119 Tai-po Road, driver of the car, in evidence on Thursday stated that he dimmed his lights on the face of oncoming traffic, when the accident occurred in a few minutes. He did not see the girl until too late.

REVOLVER POSSESSION

Before Mr. Q. A. A. Macfadyen at the Kowloon Magistracy yesterday, Wong Cheung, 32, and Tse Fuk, 34, both unemployed carpenters, were charged with possession of a revolver and five rounds of ammunition at Lai-chikok Road near Boundary Street, on October 17. Det.-Sgt. Riddell prosecuted. The case was remanded for a week.

POSSESSION OF HEROIN PILLS

Women Sentenced To Hard Labour

Two young women, Ng Wai Chan and Kam Wai Hing, and an elderly woman, Lo Chun, stood trial at the Criminal Sessions yesterday before the Chief Justice, Sir Anson MacGregor, on a charge of the possession of one ounce of crude heroin, 23 lbs. of pink paste and 103,750 heroin pills at 99, Leighton Hill Road, first floor, on September 12.

Mr. Leo D'Almada, instructed by Mr. M. A. da Silva, appeared for the defence and pleaded not guilty.

The following jury was empanelled:—Messrs. J. E. Jupp (foreman), G. A. White, W. Wong, Ho Hung Fong, A. P. Souza, R. A. da Silva and J. Gomes.

Mr. M. J. Abbott, Assistant Crown Solicitor, for the prosecution, explained that originally seven persons were charged and for various reasons they were not in Court.

Two of them, Li Sin Kiu and Chan Sam had pleaded guilty already.

Mr. Abbott said that Mr. Taylor, Government Monopoly Analyst, R. O. Grimmit and a raiding party went to the premises and the door was opened by Ng Wai Chan. Mr. Grimmit also saw another woman, Kam Wai Hing, run towards the rear of the premises and he caught her as she was climbing over the guard-rail. Lo Chun, was apparently asleep at the time. Mr. Grimmit also noticed a strong smell of heroin pills drying.

JUDGE LISTENS TO GRAMOPHONE
RECORDSDeciding Factor In Copyright
Dispute

Gramophone records of an imitation by music hall performers of an air raid were played to Mr. Justice Lewis, the Vacation Court Judge, in his private room at the Law Courts, recently.

The hearing of an application for an interim injunction to restrain The Six Harmonists, music hall, radio, and film artists, from an alleged infringement of copyright claimed by The Four Aces, also music hall, film, and radio artists, in a composition called "Take Cover" was temporarily interrupted for the purpose.

Mr. R. O. Wilberforce, on behalf of The Four Aces, said that the dispute related to the copyright in a composition which The Four Aces contended was invented by them, and which they alleged had been infringed by The Six Harmonists.

The composition consisted of the representation by purely vocal means of an impression of an air raid with the accompanying noises of aeroplanes and gun fire.

Counsel asked his Lordship to hear gramophone records of "Take Cover" and of the alleged infringing performance by The Six Harmonists, and this was done.

When counsel and Mr. Justice Lewis returned to Court, Mr. Martin O'Connor, on behalf of The Six Harmonists, said that they denied that they had copied from The Four Aces.

Mr. Justice Lewis, in dismissing the motion, said: "I have had the advantage of hearing both records, and in my view they are completely dissimilar."

STREET NOISES

There was a time when Paris was the most innoxious city in the world for street noises. This notoriety did much to attract tourists who came for a few days and then went on their ways to tell all and sundry that they could scarcely sleep a wink all the time they were in the so-called gayest city in the world. That was alright in its way. It attracted more tourists, but with the pace at which city dwellers have to live life to-day, it became too much even for the French of Paris, and so now there are rigidly enforced municipal regulations in that centre which reduce street noises to a minimum with the result that instead of an all day and night riot of noise there is comparative quiet.

Tourists have not diminished, so the publicity value of street noises goes by the board.

Likewise with London. There are regulations as even more stringent than in Paris. The populace, of course, is more pragmatic. Trafalgar Square and Piccadilly Circus are no longer places which shriek the nerves to shreds. The traffic moves just as quickly though more quietly—as quiet as can reasonably be expected in a mighty metropolis.

Not only have world centres legislated against traffic noises but "sprinklers", newspaper-vendors and others who make the day and night hideous with their cries have been subdued.

It seems that the time is ripe for Hong Kong to follow the precedents established by Paris and London in the matter of minimising street noises.

Considering the size of this city and its volume of traffic there is absolutely no justification for the tremendous amount of noise which pierces the main business quarter day and night. Indeed, as matters exist it appears that a wholesale and unwholesome competition is in perpetual and vigorous swing as to which noise can reach the highest stratum of audibility.

A start in the direction of street quiet might well be made with motor cars which are permitted to hurtle through space with the horns full out. When all is said and done, the pedestrian has some right to the road and the manner in which motor cars are allowed to career on their hooting ways bespeaks a callousness which amounts to snobbery. Then the trams might be disciplined. They make enough noise as it is without tinkling a single bell, but apparently it is deemed essential for their progress "that every tram driver should jingle and jangle his way from start to stop. Loud speakers blare into the infernal din created by motor cars and trams, and then street hawkers add their considerable contribution to the riot of sound.

It is all very interesting and amusing for a time, for a very short time, but for those who have to work and reside in the city it is nerve-wracking beyond endurance. It took London and other centres a long time to contro street noises, so the sooner Hong Kong makes a start in that direction the better.

REPORTED THREAT

Brussels, Oct. 22.

The reported threat of the semi-Fascist Rexist party to attempt a "coup d'etat" was referred to by the Prime Minister, M. Paul van Zeeland, in a nation-wide broadcast speech this evening, in which he dealt with the Government's decision to ban the demonstration of 250,000 Rexists on Sunday.

In response to the Government's ban, M. de Grellé, the Rexists' leader, declared the demonstration would be held despite the wishes of the Prime Minister.

M. van Zeeland, in reply, said his sole consideration in banning the gathering was the preservation of law and order. The Government had tolerated violent party campaigns long enough, and because it respected free play in the constitution, it would continue to do so. But when a party declared it would set aside a Government decision and descend on a city and sweep away the legal Government, then that Government said flatly, "No, never."

Belgium would never accept a Government from the street, declared the Prime Minister.

GOVERNOR LAYS FOUNDATION
STONE

laid on October 23, 1936, by His Excellency the Governor, Sir Andrew Caldecott, Kt., C.M.G., C.B.E. of two Church Missionary Society institutions, Fairlea (1886), and Victoria Home (1887), in the founding of the C.M.S. Heep Yunn School.

HISTORY RECALLED

Giving a brief history of the Victoria Home, Miss Hollis said: The first Victoria Home was in a building next door to St. John's Hall near the University. It is now used as a Boys' Club. It received its name because it was opened in 1887, the year Queen Victoria celebrated her Golden Jubilee.

The first to live in the House were a few destitute girls previously rescued and cared for by two C.M.S. missionaries, the Rev. and Mrs. J. B. Ost. The new Home became the responsibility of the C.M.S. who ever since 1887 have appointed workers to carry on the work.

During the first 15 years of its existence the Home proved so necessary an institution in the Colony that it filled to overflowing and the present building was erected on the hill outside Kowloon City and was ready for occupation before Christmas 1902.

Eleven years later a new wing had to be added and at that time the Home was still in the country, but now a new city is growing up around it, so the house must be demolished and the site abandoned just as we have reached the 50th year of life.

Although we feel that the right step is being taken to-day as part of our family unite with Fairlea in the founding of Heep Yunn School, yet we naturally cannot help feeling sad at the breaking up and division of the old Victoria Home and Orphanage. Part of the family will come here to the Heep Yunn School and part will go out to the Victoria Home extension Rural Orphanage at Tai-po to learn practical methods of agriculture and be fitted to become helpful home-makers in the country villages.

Owing to the division it is difficult to decide how to celebrate our Golden Jubilee; but we believe we can depend on the interest and help of everyone in the Colony to bring success to whatever practical form is selected for helping on the work of the Victoria Home and Orphanage.

LOYALTY AND VITAL
TRADITIONS

The next speaker was Mrs. Cheung, who heartily welcomed and thanked His Excellency for graciously consenting to lay the stone of the new building.

Continuing, she said: In 1930 there was an urgent need for a Middle School for higher Chinese education. The parents asked for it, so we started a Lower Middle School at first, as owing to lack of class rooms we dared not attempt to begin the Upper Middle School. After a few years thirty-five graduates from the Lower Middle School showed good results, so we started the Upper Middle School. Our own building was insufficient to provide the necessary class rooms, but the Principal of St. Stephen's Girls' College made it possible by lending us some extra rooms and dormitories. As both schools were making great improvement and pupils were increasing in number at the time, it was felt that Fairlea should separate and look after its own welfare. Just at this time the Government insisted upon taking back the site of the Victoria Home and Orphanage, and in exchange, a certain sum for a building fund, with a site in front of the new Central British School was given to the institute. We took this opportunity to consult Bishop Hall, the Chairman of the Council of the Associated Schools, the other members, and the Principal of the Victoria Home and Orphanage, with a scheme for fusing Fairlea and part of the Victoria Home into one who's school to be named "Heep Yunn." These two Chinese characters mean "co-operation" and "grace" and will signify that both Fairlea and the Victoria Home in being united will hereafter help each other in one perfect school, whose work will be for the education and enlightenment of Chinese girls under Christian influence and direction. Fairlea is to leave St. Stephen's Girls' College, but the latter is giving to Fairlea the cost of their site at St. Stephen's.

On Thursday, Fairlea celebrated its Golden Jubilee and Speech Day in the old building in Hong Kong. Many guests spoke highly of the past history of the School, and after fifty years we realise what a labour of love it must have been, and now we are looking forward to a new record in the Heep Yunn School, but will continue our loyalty to the vital traditions of Fairlea and the Victoria Home, and will take the great responsibility of upholding standards of education and fulfilling our duty as the kind of Vernacular School which is needed by those who desire their children to have a first rate education given in the Chinese language.

We hope that by the Grace of God, the sound guidance and advice of the members of the Council, and the co-operation of parents of the students and the friends of the School, we shall be able to achieve that aim and have a bright future in front of us.

GOVERNOR'S SPEECH

His Excellency the Governor, said:

The laying of a foundation stone is always a solemn moment to the layer. Unless one is a mason by trade one does not on any other occasion in life consciously set a thing in a place where it must stay put for decades or even, it may be, centuries. So much of our daily round consists of ephemeralities and apparent trivialities that we are apt to forget that a great deal of what we do day by day does nevertheless stay put in the moulding of our own characters and in the reactions of others to our good or bad influence. I want every future inmate of this building to bear in mind that, in their teaching and in their learning, they will (whether they like the idea or not) be for ever laying foundation stones. The future tone and value of this school will depend not on any physical stone such as that I have laid to-day but on what each mistress and pupil contributes of solid worth to its moral fabric. It is a Christian school and its builders instructions are therefore quite plain and direct; they are summed up in the first line of a hymn: "Christ is our corner-stone, on Him alone we build."

A MARRIAGE

But the stone which I have just laid, is not only a foundation for the future but a commemoration of the past and present. It commemorates, may I say, a marriage. Two lives of singular usefulness are to be welded into a broader life of even greater usefulness. The stone is, as it were, the matrimonial altar before which Mr. Fairlea and Miss Victoria Home stand to solemnize their union before God and man; their mutual sacrifice of individual tradition to the call for joint service is exemplified in the surrender by both of their unmarried names. They will henceforth be Mr. and Mrs. Heep Yunn, and they will start their wedded life with the joy and inspiration of each other's golden jubilee. God prosper them!

And just one word in conclusion. Many of you here will have read Mr. Burney's Report on Education in Hong Kong. He suggested that our Educational policy should be such (I quote his actual words) "as to secure for the pupils, first, a command of their own language sufficient for all needs of thought and expression and, secondly, a command of English limited to the satisfaction of vocational demands." I have it from the Vice-Principal of Fairlea that the aim of the Heep Yunn School authorities will be to put this service into effect. And again, I say "God Prosper Them!"

In reply, the Chairman extended thanks for His Excellency's presence there that afternoon. It was a most auspicious occasion and the speaker added that he hoped that the two schools, on that historic occasion, would be like the two wings of the Clipper that had only arrived that day, and carry the new institution to a great height of excellence both in regard to the Christian institution already famous, and the Christian character which had already done so much good.

The ceremony was brought to a close with the blessing pronounced by the Rt. Rev. S. T. Mok.

THOSE PRESENT

On the platform with His Excellency and Lady Caldecott were the following: Bishop Mok, of Canton; Mr. G. R. Sayer, Director of Education; Mr. William Hornell; the Rev. E. W. L. Martin; Mrs. Cheung, the Headmistress of the Fairlea School; Miss Hollis, the Headmistress of Victoria Home, and the Rev. Lee Kai Leun.

NON-INTERVENTION IN SPAIN ITALY, GERMANY AND PORTUGAL ACCUSE SOVIET

Grave Warning By Home Secretary

"FEARFUL RAGING FURNACE!"

Charges And Counter-Charges

London, October 23. The Italian Government's reply to the note of the Committee for the Application of an Agreement regarding non-intervention in Spain reached the Italian Embassy in London late last night and was handed over to Lord Plymouth, the acting chairman of the Committee.

The note rejects the accusations brought against Italy of infractions of the agreement. The second Italian note brings charges of breaches of agreement against the Soviet Government. These communications, together with the German reply to the Committee's note, will come before the meeting of the Committee this afternoon. It is possible that the Portuguese reply may also arrive in London in time for consideration at this meeting.—British Wireless.

Soviet Expected To Withdraw

FORECAST OF STORMY SCENES

London, Oct. 23. Portugal's reply to the Soviet allegations of breaches of non-intervention agreement is being despatched to London by a military seaplane in order to arrive in time for this afternoon's meeting of the Non-Intervention Committee which is eagerly awaited.

Portugal, like Germany and Italy repudiates the charges and makes countercharges against the Soviet of actively helping in Madrid. Stormy scenes are expected at this meeting at which it is expected that the Soviet will make new charges against Germany, Italy and Portugal; after which the Soviet's representatives will walk out and withdraw from the non-intervention pact.—Reuter's Bulletin Service.

Statesman's Warning

"CAREFULLY CONSIDER CONSEQUENCES"

London, Oct. 23. Sir John Simon, Home Secretary, speaking at Newcastle-on-Tyne last night said if there had been breaches of non-intervention agreement in Spain it would be rash to assume that they had occurred only on one side.

"But surely," he declared, "the object of preventing war spreading and of localising the conflict was a consideration of surpassing importance. Let those who wanted to advocate any other course carefully consider what the consequences might be."

Indeed, he added, it was not clear to him what alternative policy to non-intervention was no serious alternative policy had as yet been formulated. The appeal made by the British Government to both sides to come to an agreement for exchange of hostages and for release of women prisoners was one which would be supported by every man and woman in this country.

"There is a fearful raging furnace of fire in the corner of Europe. One of the duties that rests heavily on us is to see that fire does not spread."—British Wireless.

NATIONALISTS ADVANCE

Reds Mutilate Bishop

REVOLTING SPECTACLE

(Hong Kong Daily Press Special)

Burgos, Oct. 22. A message from the front states that the Nationalist troops in their advance have captured the naval port of del Marques on the Southern slopes of the Sierra de Guadarrama near el Escorial, the traditional residence of Spanish Kings.

Reports arriving here from Barcelona describe revolting details of the assassination of the Bishop of Catalonia by the Reds in that city. It is stated that the Bishop was dragged from the prison to an open square, where he was auctioned off as a slave to the highest bidder in the presence of a jeering mob, which then fell upon him and beat him mercilessly, leaving the body for dead, when guards, which had looked on unconcernedly, mutilated the body.—Transocean News Service.

Minister Salengro has already called attention to the fact that the mobile guard is insufficient to maintain order throughout the country.

It is announced that the bill to be introduced will provide for 2,000 men of the mobile guard to be permanently on duty on the frontier.—Transocean News Service.

GERMANY ITIMISES CHARGES

London, Oct. 22. The most important item on the agenda of the Non-Intervention Committee meeting to-morrow will be Germany's denial of Russian allegations that she has broken her agreement not to assist either side in the Spanish civil war.

Germany will make counter-charges, the most important of which are understood to be that a munitions train arrived in Madrid on September 12 from Barcelona with 60 anti-aircraft guns of Russian origin and that the Russian steamer Komosol, on October 16, landed at Carthagena 50 tanks and 94 men to man them.—Reuter.

"GIRL PAT"

Master And Mate Sentenced

London, Oct. 22.

The trial of the run-away master and mate of the Girl Pat, a Grimsby trawler, who took the vessel half-way around the world before they were overtaken by the British authorities in the Caribbean Sea, ended to-day. George Osborne, master, was sentenced to 18 months' hard labour and Jim Osborne, his brother, was sentenced to 12 months' hard labour at Old Bailey.

The judge was most severe in a two-hour summing up. He said that some newspaper proprietor had agreed to pay the two prisoners and the crew of the Girl Pat £5,000 for their story, which was against the public interest. Out of this £5,000 two of the crew, who were witnesses for the defence, had been receiving £5 a week from the prisoners' solicitors, which was an undesirable state of things.

The judge condemned the suggestion that Mr. Tom Moore, who was managing-director of the company which owned the Girl Pat, desired that the ship be scuttled. The suggestion was made without the slightest foundation, he said.

The judge's general indication to the jury was that the prisoners' stories could not be believed. It was like a cashier proceeding to Paris with a stolen £5,000 and returning with the balance saying he did not mean to steal but had meant to come back all along.

After 35 minutes' deliberation the jury brought in a verdict of guilty.—Reuter.

Subsidising Marriage

Birth Increase Plan

Vienna, Oct. 23.

The catastrophic decrease of birthrate in Vienna is given as the reason for a decision taken by the "Chamber of Federal Officials" here to appropriate the sum of 100,000 schillings for the purpose of encouraging marriages among State employees and working classes.

It is provided that such persons shall receive loans repayable by instalments in the course of five years, whereby the financial situation of the borrowers will be taken into consideration in order to avoid unnecessary hardships.

The Chamber has further decided that this grant shall be an annual one if the funds at the Chamber's disposal permit.

It is pointed out that the birth-rate in Austria is becoming increasingly unsatisfactory. Thus in Vienna thirty-four percent of marriages are childless, whilst only fourteen percent of married couples have three or more children.—Transocean News Service.

SPY PURGE

Nanking Activity

Nanking, Oct. 23.

Spies and secret agents on the payroll of foreign government or governments who have been suspected of infesting Nanking at one time or another in disguise as monks or nuns for the purpose of obtaining important military intelligence, will henceforth find it impossible to continue their nefarious activities in Buddhist cloaks as a city-wide check-up of all the local monasteries and nunneries is now being made by the local garrison and police authorities.

The Government's determination to prevent places of religious worship from being used as smoke screens by traitorous spies has the hearty support of all the local abbots and abbesses.—Union News.

RESIGNATION OF MINISTERS

Sofia, Oct. 22.

The Railway Minister and the Minister of Education tendered their written resignations to the Premier on Thursday. The resignations were accepted. These two Ministers, who belong to Zankoff's Peoples Social Party explained their step as a protest against the present Government's failure to keep its promise made in the beginning of July to hold general elections.

The Premier had an audience with the King, and it was then officially declared that the Cabinet would not resign, but merely fill the two vacant posts.—Transocean News Service.

BRITAIN'S AEROPLANE INDUSTRY

"SHADOW"

CAUSES

TROUBLE

LORD NUFFIELD'S CHARGES

'Lack Of Support'

London, Oct. 23.

A long statement has been issued by Lord Nuffield setting out the reasons which impelled him to withdraw one of his group of companies, Wolsley Aero Engines Limited, from the Air Ministry "shadow industry" scheme for the making of aeroplane engine parts to be assembled at a central factory. He states that the works of this company which was started in 1929 and which was financed to the extent of £500,000 with his own money, had for the present been closed.

The dispute was due to a difference of opinion on the principles of production, and he complains that throughout the whole development-period there had been lack of support from political interests at the Air Ministry, although help had been freely given by the technical side.

GOVERNMENT'S PLAN

The government's plan is to establish a "shadow" industry which could, in case of war, at once begin production of aero-engines and during the process of its establishment it will produce engines to supplement normal supplies for the R.A.F. under the expansion scheme. Five motor manufacturing firms and the Bristol Aeroplane Company are working the scheme and erecting special factories.

The Air Ministry last night stated that as Lord Nuffield's statement mainly dealt with the considered policy of the Government in relation to the "shadow" aero-engine industry, the Secretary of State would take an early opportunity of making a full statement in Parliament. It is understood that the Air Minister, Lord Swinton, does not accept Lord Nuffield's version of the events with which he deals.—British Wireless.

British Shipping

Australia And New Zealand Act

London, Oct. 22.

Two Dominions to-day took steps in the defence of British shipping.

The New Zealand House of Representatives gave first reading to the Protection of British Shipping Bill, by which the New Zealand Government assumes the power to impose restrictions and prohibitions against foreign countries which discriminate against British shipping.

The Minister of Marine, Mr. Fraser, explained to the House that the United States Government was acquainted with the terms of the Bill and an undertaking had been given that the measure would not become operative until the United States had an opportunity of making suggestions.

Meanwhile, in Canberra, the Minister of Commerce, Mr. Page, announced that the Australian Cabinet had approved the main principles of a bill to restrict American ships engaging in the local passenger trade between New Zealand and Australia, and also to deal with the general question of competition with British shipping in the Pacific by other foreign companies.

The Australian legislation will be similar to New Zealand's.—Reuter.

Hamburg-Amerika Line

Increasing Far Eastern Fleet

Berlin, Oct. 22.

The Hamburg-Amerika Line is increasing its fleet of freight vessels operating on the Far East route by two 8,000-ton vessels. The first will be ready for service in the spring of 1938.—Reuter.

To-day's Races

Mr. Norman Deltz, one of the leading jockeys will be an absentee at the meeting, having left for Manila on business by the "President Coolidge" last Wednesday evening. Mr. Frost has been seen on the training track lately but has only been doing light work since his recent indisposition and will, probably ride in one or two races only, if at all. A warm welcome will be extended to Mr. S. C. Liang on his return to the saddle after a serious attack of malaria last month.

For the first race, the October Handicap over 1-1/4 miles, for China Ponies, I strongly favour the chances of King's Warden (G.U. da Rosa) and Cossack's Beauty (S. Y. Liang). Both ponies are very fit, as can be judged by their recent training gallops. King's Warden galloped the mile in 2:04-4/5 last Wednesday morning, finishing the last two furlongs in 30/35; an extremely creditable performance, while Cossack's Beauty did a splendid 1-1/4 miles on Sunday, in 2:37-2/5. King's Warden should win with Cossack's Beauty and Soldier of Britain occupying the other two positions. Royal Scot is still a doubtful starter.

Electron (H. M. Pih) has been allotted top weight in the Queensland Handicap for "A" Class Australian Ponies, One Mile. The opposition will be provided by Vixen Tor, Australian Boy and Bag Tor. Despite the 185 lbs. Electron should just about win. Australian Boy is in excellent condition and, with only 145 lbs. to carry may cause an upset. Derby Day, Bohniak Star and Holiday Eve will be the other probable starters. The public has not had a real chance to judge the capabilities of the latter pony and if started his performance will be followed with interest. After winning the Sydney Maidens (First Section) at the Annual Meeting fairly comfortably Holiday Eve has been on the walking list, but quite a section of racegoers firmly believe that this Australian can be counted on as one of the best.

After Amberley's (S. Y. Liang) fast mile gallop last Saturday, this chestnut will be well supported in the betting when the "C" Class China ponies (Second Section) face the starter in the third race. Royal Highness (Harriman) should once again finish well to the fore. This pony is right up to the mark and has shown excellent form during early morning work. High Honour (H. M. Pih) and Valorous (E. O. Butler) will be the others worth considering. Despite the failure of Ythan at the last meeting, a bet each way to-day would not be out of line.

The Paddock Handicap (Once Round) for "E" Class ponies and subscription griffins of the year that have not won more than $1,000 in stakes has been confined to Novice Jockeys, and the task of picking the winner will be none too easy. Shamrock (Choy Wing Chiu), on past performance, is my first choice, though Old Star galloped well enough on Wednesday morning to create a favourable impression. Emergency Call which finished fourth at the last meeting may be placed here. Estover (Fleiden) seems to have gone back a little in form, but punters should not ignore the fact that this grey was purchased as a griffin and accounted for Night View in Macao. Other probable starters are: Balios (Wood), Ebony Idol, Blue Ribbon, Cassius (H. A. de B. Botelho), King's Parade (Browning), Laughing Buddha (Poy) and Rugby Star.

Bear Claw (Black) should compensate Mrs. Dunbar for her ill luck at the last meeting by winning the Wyndham Handicap over 1-1/4 miles. A strong field of "B" Class ponies will strip for this event and the finish should be very close. I would make Dawn Star a very good bet if this mare had been in training a little longer, but even in her present condition I would recommend her as a good outsider. Cyclaman Bay (Butler) King's Justice (Harriman) King's Fancy (H. C. Pih), King's Lead (G. U. da Rosa), Mistake Bay (Davis) Rose-Queen and Sadko, will probably don silk. What about Sadko at 147 lbs? This has been repeatedly put to me during the week. This game old racer has only to display a shade of his old form to be right there at the finish. Incidentally, this race is the first leg of the Daily Double.

In The Ballarat Handicap for "B" Class Australian ponies, over 1 mile and 155 yards, Centre Court (Proulx) should be prominent. She ran a wonderful race the last time out and was only beaten by a short head. Racing Heart is next in my estimation, with Snowy River and Blandford as the next best.

The second leg of the Daily Double, to many rail fans, appears to be a very good thing for Ribble (P. P. Botelho) as the distance of 1 mile and 155 yards should admirably suit Mr. Grayburn's candidate. This is a race for "C" Class ponies. First Section. King's Bounty (H. M. Pih) and Pontiac Bay (Black) will give the field a good run. Bistre will be ridden by Choy Wing Chiu and with only 135 lbs. should run well. There are several ponies with a good outside chance in this race, the more prominent ones being Soldier of Peace (H. C. Pih), Bright View (Y. T. Fung) and Monoplane (S. C. Liang). The Lan stable will be represented also by Jungle Jim (W. H. Choy), Soldier of China (Ip Kui Ying) and probably Harvest View (S. Y. Liang).

The last race of the day is the Kwangtung Handicap over one mile for "D" Class ponies and it is on this race that the special $1 sweep will be drawn. This is the most open race of the day but on track performances Sylvandale should win, Gold Coin (H. M. Pih), Night View (S. Y. Liang) and 17th of September (H. C. Pih) are other ponies to be considered. The Hero (S. L. Yuen) and Double Chance (Choy Wing Chiu) will both weigh out at 135 lbs. and I would recommend these two ponies as the best outsiders. Other probable starters are: Burgomaster (Davis), Celebration Time (Tang Man Wa), Diogenes (Ferguson), Donovan, Flybynight, Pride of Tsingtao (Wood), Racing Boy (Ip Kum Yim), Stopwatch (Ip Kui Ying), Wadebridge (G. U. da Rosa), and Plain View (W. H. Choy).

The above comments will give readers a fair indication as to the ponies worth following. My final selections appear on Page 1.

M.C.C. BOWLING FLOGGED

Australians Score 293 For One

TWO CENTURIES

Perth, Oct. 23.

At the conclusion of the second day's play in the cricket match between the M.C.C. and a combined Australian XI, the Australians had scored 293 for the loss of only one wicket.

Earlier in the day, the M.C.C. were dismissed for 497. The Australians suffered early disaster their first wicket falling with only 15 runs on the board. When tea was taken the score was 131 without further loss.

Later, Perth, Oct. 23.

Six thousand spectators were present at the match. The weather was cloudy and the wicket good.

G. O. Allen, the M.C.C. captain, scored 65 in 83 minutes. He batted confidently and with Copson (10 not out) added 70 runs for the tenth wicket scored in 50 minutes. Allen hit a six off Grimmett's bowling.

Halcombe captured 4 wickets for 124, three of which he captured this morning for four runs. Grimmett took one wicket for 187 runs.

At the close of the day's play, C. L. Badcock had 149 not out and Horrocks had scored 128 with his wicket still intact.

Badcock, who gave chances scored 13 in 38 minutes. Thereafter he put up a resolute defence and scored with fierce drives to the on-field. He reached his 100 in 183 minutes. This he followed with 18 boundary hits.

Horrocks took 165 minutes to reach his century. He hit two sixes off Verity's bowling. He followed this up with 13 fours. Towards the end both batsmen flogged the bowling.

The M.C.C. attack was most disappointing. Voce was the best bowler. Hardstaff fielded with an injured finger but he retired after ten minutes. Fingleton also fielded with a bandaged finger. Fagg kept wicket despite his injured thumb.

RIFLE SHOOTING

Imperial Challenge Cups Fired For

TRINIDAD WINS

We have received for publication, from the Colonial Secretary's office, the results of the "Morning Post" (Junior) Imperial Challenge Cup, instituted by the National Rifle Association in 1928 with the approval of the Secretary of State for the Colonies.

The following countries took part in the Match, fired at Bisley, on July 17.

Falkland Islands, Federated Malay States, Gold Coast, Mauritius, Nyasaland, The Sudan, Trinidad. As against three in 1928, six in 1927, ten in 1928, eleven in 1929, seven in 1930, seven in 1931, seven in 1932, nine in 1933, seven in 1934, and four in 1935.

The absence of teams from Ceylon, Johore, Kenya, Nigeria, Straits Settlements, Sierra Leone, Southern Rhodesia, Tanganyika, Uganda, and China (Treaty Ports), which have been represented in previous years, is regretted. The entry of a team from Mauritius for the first time was welcomed.

The National Rifle Association is greatly indebted to the Secretary of State for the Colonies for the interest he has taken in the match and the assistance so kindly afforded by the Colonial Office. It is hoped that, as the competition becomes more widely known, it may be the means of further stimulating marksmanship throughout His Majesty's Colonies and Protectorates, and lead to a wider representation at the Imperial Rifle Meeting; also that, should the number of entries continue to increase, greater opportunity will be taken to enter teams to represent groups of Colonies, Protectorates, and Dependencies sanctioned by the Council of the National Rifle Association to compete in the "Kilapore" and the "Mackinnon" Matches, viz., "Far East," "East Africa," "West Africa," and the West Indies.

The Challenge Trophy was won by the Trinidad Team with the aggregate score of 549 out of a highest possible score of 600; the Team from Nyasaland taking second place with a score of 543 marks.

THE "BARNETT CUP"

The "Barnett" (Junior Mackinnon) Imperial Challenge Cup Match, a long-range competition instituted in 1929, open to teams of four past or present members of His Majesty's Forces or the Forces of any British Protected State qualified to compete in the Junior Kilapore Match, was shot at Bisley on the July 16, and won by the Sudan with the aggregate score of 345 out of a possible 400 marks. In 1935 the trophy was won by the Sudan with the score of 353.

The late Major Sir Richard Barnett very kindly presented in 1929 a Challenge Trophy to be held for one year by the representative of the winning country, and special Commemorative Souvenirs are given by the National Rifle Association to each member of the winning team.

SCORELESS GAME

A uninteresting game of hockey was played at King's Park yesterday afternoon, when the Hong Kong Club met the East Lancs. second eleven, in a scoreless encounter. The game was very scrappy throughout.

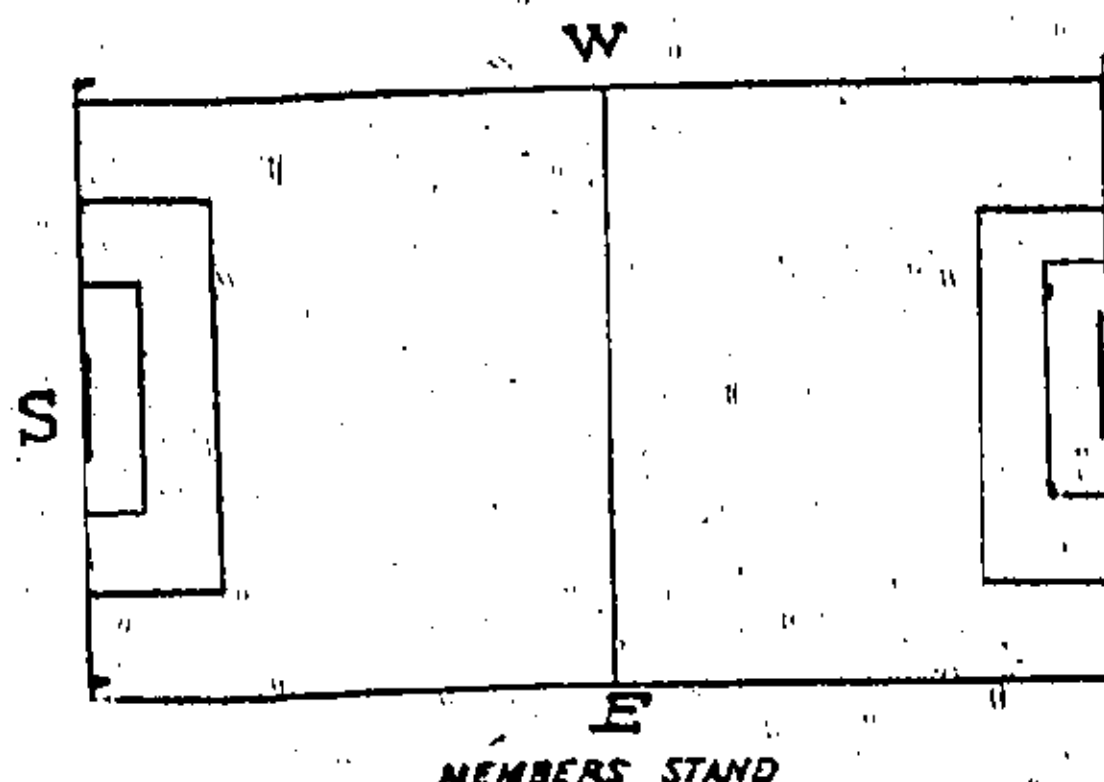

A FAMOUS CORINTHIAN

I regret to announce the death of Mr. P. M. Walters, who has died at Ashted in his 73rd year, states a London correspondent. He was a successful barrister and a Bench of Lincoln's Inn. But his name is known to millions of British Soccer enthusiasts as one of the greatest backs of all time. Five times between 1885 and 1890 he and his brother, A. M., were England's pair of full-backs against Scotland. It is a Soccer record which is never likely to be beaten.

A.M. AND P.M.

Both brothers, known because of their initials as the "Morning and Afternoon" Walters, were powerfully built and more than able to hold their own with the roughest. P. M., a Corinthian in the days of Corinth's glory, was an old Corinthian. He is the fifth famous Corinthian athlete to have died within the last twelve months. The others were G. O. Smith, E. C. Streetfield, F. Dames-Longworth and C. W. Wright.

What promises to be an interesting hockey match will be witnessed on Sunday on the Murray Parade ground when the Nomads meet the H.Q. Wing, R.U.R. in their Mamak Tournament fixture at 11 a.m.

A very even game should result, but if the Nomads strike the same form as when they surprisingly eliminated the Indian Police in their Inter-Section Tournament match, they should have no trouble in collecting both points.

The following have been selected to play for the Nomads:—A. Eca da Silva, F. G. Barros, A. Azedo, S. Souza, R. J. Reed, A. Xavier, R. M. da Silva, G. Soares, S. A. Reed, R. C. Reed and J. H. Franco.

CRICKETER INJURED

Perth, Oct. 22.

Another M.C.C. Test cricketer is injured, when it was revealed that Fagg injured his right thumb while batting.

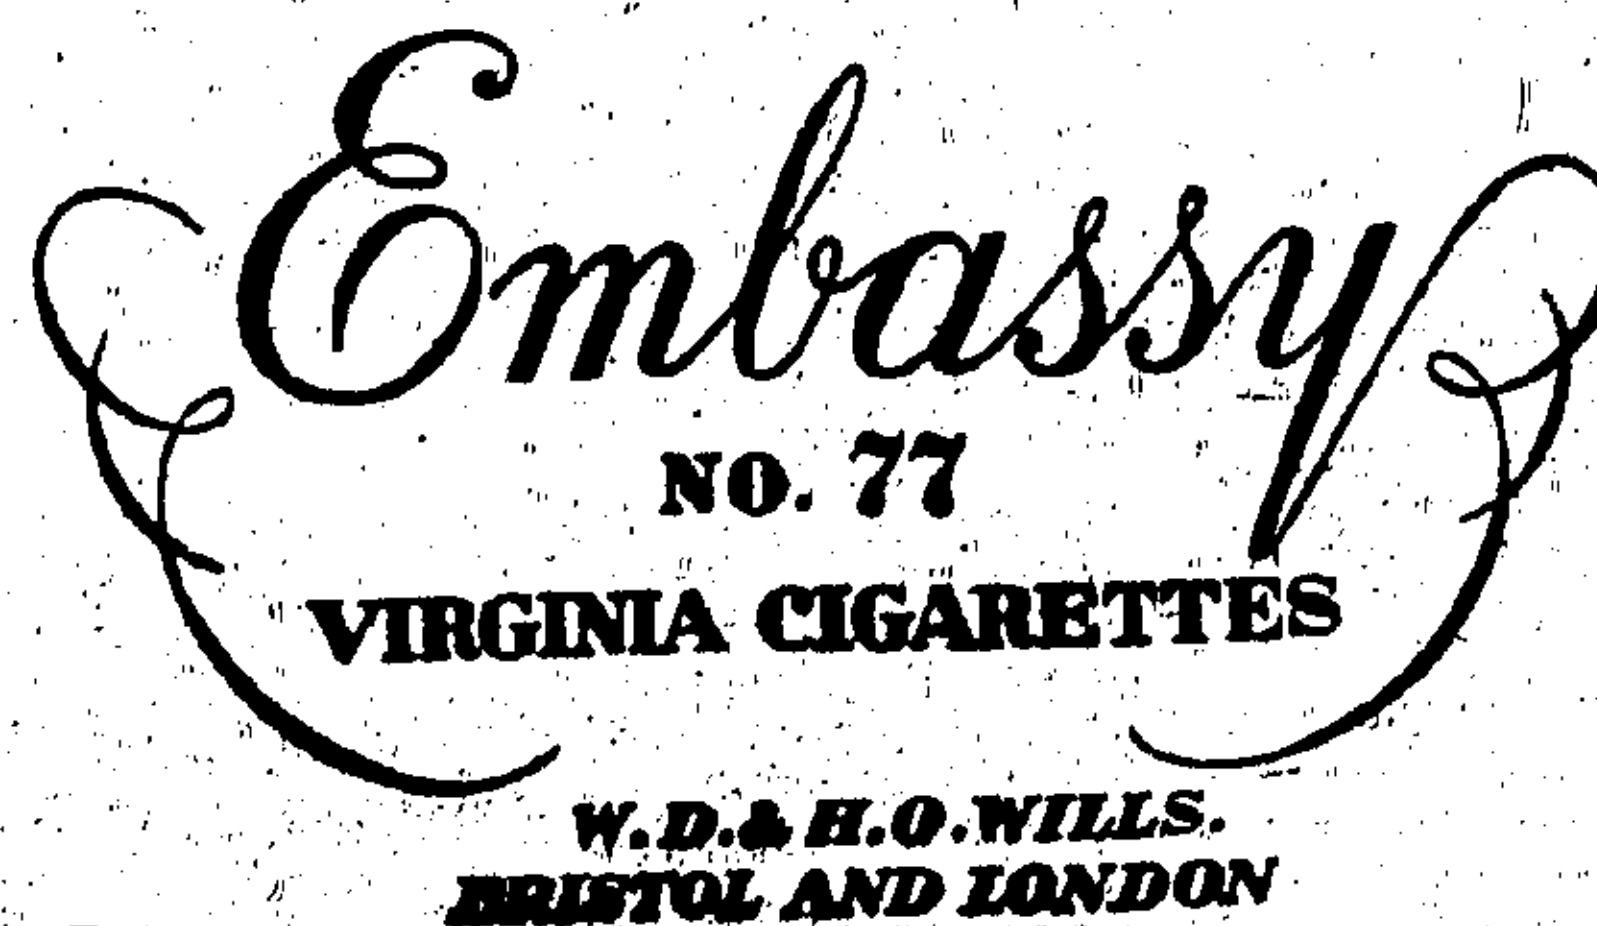

He should have kept wicket tomorrow, but is now extremely doubtful whether he can, although Reuter.

It is stated that no bones are broken.

Fagg is the third M.C.C. player on the present Australian tour to injure his hand. Duckworth and K. W. V. Robins suffered dislocated fingers in the match against Western Australia, while Ames is not fit enough to play owing to a slightly strained back.

AN EPIDEMIC OF LIVER DISORDERBy Dr. Quignon Of The Faculty Of Medicine,
Paris

Just now I am kept very busy by an epidemic of "liver" disorders—a great many people feeling "out of sorts," bilious, depressed and unable to enjoy their food. Undoubtedly the best remedy for an upset liver is provided by certain famous Continental Mineral Springs, but science has now made it possible for all liver sufferers to enjoy, in their homes, all the benefits of Continental Spa treatment, at little cost. By reproducing in crystalline form the essential principles of seven world renowned Spas, including those at Vichy, Carlsbad, Aix-les-Bains and Marienbad, 'Alkia Saltrates' provides what is probably the finest liver tonic and corrective known. It is obtainable from all high class Dispensaries and Stores.

To men and women who are feeling liverish and "out of sorts," and to those who are suffering from Rheumatism, Lumbago, Kidney trouble and High Blood Pressure I can recommend 'Alkia Saltrates' with confidence and I advise them to start the treatment without delay.

"This Island Belongs To King Edward The Eighth"

caused in London at the report from New Zealand that notices saying, "This island belongs to King Edward the Eighth" have

HIS 57th OPERATION IN 13 YEARS

Mr. Roy Nicholas, formerly of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police, is in a Toronto hospital recovering from his 57th operation in 13 years.
He has been in hospitals in the Yukon, Ottawa, Regina, Vancouver, Montreal, and Toronto.
All his troubles began, states Reuter, after he came back from the war and began breaking in horses for the Mounties.
He had dodged bullets and shrapnel in the war without a scratch, but was kicked or thrown by horses five times in Vancouver and suffered internal injuries.
"Since 1927 Mr. Nicholas has spent only one complete year out of hospital."

CLIPPER MAKES HISTORY

CLIPPER SIGHTED

At 3.50 p.m. the Philippine Clipper was sighted flying towards Kai Tak. She passed by and circled over the Island before swooping down over Kai Tak Bund, and took to the water gracefully. The Clipper turned round and steered towards the praya and then made fast to her moorings. A tender crew alongside and conveyed the passengers and crew to shore.

In the lounge of the hangar the flying visitors conversed with local residents and were enthusiastically in their praise for a wonderful journey. Press reporters were able to snatch interviews here and there from the passengers as they made their way to the lounge.

The passengers included Mr. Juan Trippe and Mrs. Trippe, Senator W. G. McAdoo, of California, Mr. Cornelius Vanderbilt Whitney, chairman of the Pan-American Airways board, and Mrs. Whitney, Mr. Roy Howard, of United Press, Mr. E. M. Swasey, Mr. Macdonald, Mr. Stallman, Mr. Amos G. Carter, President of Fort Worth Star-Telegram, Mr. H. M. Bixby, of Pan-American Airways.

In an interview, Mr. Trippe said that the Philippine Clipper will leave early this morning for Manila with all passengers, excepting Mr. and Mrs. Trippe, Mr. Bixby, Mr. and Mrs. Whitney and Mr. Howard.

The party will travel to the North in a C.N.A.C. Douglas-Douglas plane leaving Kai Tak at 7 a.m. this morning. They will return on October 24. Mr. and Mrs. Whitney and Mr. Howard will go to Manila to catch the Clipper on November 6.

SATISFACTORY FLIGHT

Mr. Trippe said that the flight had been most satisfactory. Their schedule called for them to land in Hong Kong at 4 p.m. when they were leaving San Francisco. They had arrived on time owing to good weather and favourable circumstances in spite of two days at Manila and a day at Hawaii. Mrs. Whitney, Mrs. Trippe and Mrs. McAdoo are the first three women to fly across the Pacific. All three ladies, when interviewed, stated that the trip had been wonderful.

"MOST BEAUTIFUL CITY"

"Hong Kong is the most beautiful city I have seen in my life," commented Mr. E. W. Swasey. "There is no place in the world like this. Hong Kong has Rio beaten. We left Manila this morning after a glorious feast."

Mr. Swasey added that he had travelled over 100,000 miles by air and last year flew to Ecuador.

"We will be back in San Francisco on Wednesday. We left their last week. We all have to be back in America in time for the voting on November 3 for the Presidential election."

Los Angeles, he said, is more prosperous than it has ever been, and business in California was good.

Mr. Swasey obliged film representatives with a recorded statement. He said that the flight was one of the most epochal events and he predicted that the event would be celebrated one hundred years hence. The inauguration of this regular service would do much to bind friendly relations.

NO FEEDERS

In a statement yesterday, Mr. Juan Trippe said that Pan-American Airways will definitely run their regular Clipper ships to Hong Kong and will not use the smaller craft as feeders. The Clippers will use both Hong Kong and Macao airports for the first few months.

MACAO ARRIVAL

Macao, Oct. 23. A large crowd witnessed the arrival of the Philippine Clipper in splendid weather.

The passengers landed at noon and visited the city.—

CLIPPER'S CREW

The following are the crew of the Philippine Clipper:—

Pilot, J. H. Tilton; first officer, F. Ralph; second officer, W. Lan; navigating officer, H. R. Canaday; engineer officer, C. M. Greene; radio officer, A. W. Belderna; steward, I. Parker.

The Clipper was in radio touch with Mr. F. A. Kemp, of the Government Radio Office, as soon as she passed Pratas Shoal until her arrival here.

AMERICAN CONSUL'S STATEMENT

Prior to the arrival of the Philippine Clipper, Mr. Charles L. Hoover, Consul-General for America, in a statement to press representatives said that he regarded the flight as the beginning of a service that will make Hong Kong a port for air services as important as it has been for shipping in the past. It was a logical cross-road for traffic of all descriptions between America and Europe.

The flight, he said, was only a courtesy visit and the date of the arrival of the first commercial service had not yet been decided but he was certain that it would not be very long distant in the near future.

"I have heard many expressions of pleasure on the part of the American citizens and business men at the courtesies extended by the British authorities in Hong Kong and I am sure that this service will do much to cement the important relations, particularly in business and intellectual intercourse, between our country and the Far East," concluded Mr. Hoover.

Mr. Hoover also made another statement which was recorded.

HAWAII CLIPPER

The Hawaii Clipper, carrying the first paying passengers, left Alameda, California, on the afternoon of Wednesday, as originally scheduled, instead of Thursday. She is due in Manila on Tuesday, October 27. Previously it had been decided to postpone the flight for 24 hours because the plane was late in reaching Alameda on her last trip due to delay caused by typhoons.
